2. What is the PAGS Approach to Ministry Placement and Mobilization Program?

A Very Simple, Flexible and Easy System to Double Member Involvement to Accomplish Your God-Given Kingdom Assignment—Regardless of the Size of Your Ministry!”

The PAGS™ Approach to Ministry Placement and Mobilization© is a complete system designed for ministries who want to get your members out of the pews and doing the work of their ministry now.

Wearing The Right C.A.P.™ and the PAGS™ Programs use the T-T-C Process© to help you improve the quality of instruction, understand the skills and concepts related to placement and accomplishing the goals you set for you and your ministry.

The process toward your successful, fulfilling and empowering Kingdom Assignment is progressive. Each segment of the three step process builds on the segment preceding it.

3. What is the process?

This revolutionary ministry placement program uses a proprietary process called the PAGS APPROACH© --through the use of self-reflection you identify your primary area gift stream© (PAGS) so that you know where to look based on how God designed you and your members to express Him through the work you do, then you clarify your unique role looking at specific clues that's customized just for you. Plus by using a combination of support tools, small group interaction, in as little as 8 hours, the PAGS Quickstart Program© guides you step by step through the PAGS Basic Program so you walk away with your specific step-by-step PAGES Blueprint© to get your God-given Kingdom Assignment started immediately.

4. How does it work?

a. You take the Wearing The Right C.A.P. PAGES or Fivefold Leadership Assessment. These ground-breaking assessments have had a 96% accuracy rate since 2005.

Every person has a unique combination of PAGES (primary area gift stream©). These are NOT spiritual gifts. Your PAGES fall into five (5) categories: Producer-Projector-Publisher-Protector and Potter. Every ministry and workplace occupation fall into one of these five categories. By answering this simple questionnaire (less than 30 minutes online) you discover your "exact" primary and secondary gift stream.

These assessments are only available through Wearing The Right C.A.P.™.

b. Take your PAGES result information and record it as you use the step-by-step PAGES Guides to connect you to your 5 unique clues that reveal your Kingdom Assignment with the assistance of your PAGES Facilitator. Your PAGES Guide is your blueprint that you hold on to and expand as you grow in your Kingdom Assignment.

c. Take your PAGES Blueprint to your PAGES Coach© - the person who wants your success more than you do. Together you'll plot out your first steps to walk in your Kingdom Assignment.

Important: Keep reading below to see how you can make money to financially support your God-given vision and recover your start up investment through our PTI Associate Program

PTI (PAGS Training Institute©) Associate Program

A subsidiary of Wearing The Right C.A.P.™

What Is An Associate Program?

An Associate or affiliate marketing is the term used to describe a revenue-sharing plan where an online automated marketing program lets organizations and individuals place an advertiser's banner ads or buttons on their own website. Ministries, organizations and individuals will receive a commission from conversions when a customer has clicked the associate link and performs the desired action, such as make a purchase or joins the PTI Program on the Wearing The Right C.A.P.™ web site.

How Does It Work?

Once you join our Associate Program you then are able to choose the products or banners you want to include on your Web site, and then receive the code you will need to insert on specific Web page or throughout your Web site.

For the most part, the Associate Program work by using a combination of a unique user ID and cookies to track your leads and subsequent revenues. You will have a private associate section on our web site where you can get your HTML code and also check your associate account status and information. Through the use of browser cookies, any person who uses your link to make the desired action within a set amount of time contributes to your associate revenue.

For example, if a user follows your link and looks through our program and services they are tracked as "your referral" by the browser cookie. If the person makes the purchase before the cookie expires, you get the referral commission. So even if a user sits with items in their shopping cart but doesn't go back and make the purchase for two weeks, you can still get the commission, provided the cookie is still active.

Why Choose the PTI Associate Program

There are such a large number of associate or affiliate programs to choose from and many are structured differently. Here are some tips to keep us in mind while looking for a good match.

First, you need to be sure you are comfortable with the product you're promoting or selling and you have confidence in the company you are linking to. Check the pages on our web site. Would you yourself consider purchasing our products or services? Chances are your visitors will be interested in it too. We encourage PTI Associates to participate in the PTI Programs prior to sharing the services with others. Your 'testimony' of your PTI and Wearing The Right C.A.P.™ experience and results carries the most credibility.

Second, make sure you understand the associate agreement and that you can comply with it.

Third, you will be offered tracking and reporting tools for associates. We provide you with a way to access real-time automated statistics to view conversions, sales and commissions. You will have ad and product display options to integrate the marketing materials into your web site. You will be given the option to change the colors, themes and choose from a selection of different sized banners and buttons. This means a little less work for you, as the associate, and it also means your associate program meshes with your site.

We use the pay-per-sale program for commissions. This may mean you'll have less visitors clicking through from your site to complete the transactions. We offer other marketing resources to increase your number of unique visitors. We share those options and devise a plan during your first strategic action plan consultation.

PTI Program Associate Opportunity

Once you complete your application and get your unique 'associate' ID, you get to choose how involved you want to be as you use the resources to accomplish your ministry, organization or individual vision and goals. During your first strategic consultation, you'll set your initial goals and path for the first year. We will also discuss additional online and live support. Wearing The Right C.A.P.™ offers you as a participant in the Associate Program and PTI Programs.

We really focus on ministry placement and getting all of your members in their right place, doing the right assignment based on God's design. Not only do your members have a specific Kingdom Assignment, so does your ministry. We want to support you as you fulfill your God-given vision for your ministry.
